Who is eligible for Gentiva home healthcare?

Are you 65 or older?

Have you been diagnosed with a new illness?

Has your medication recently changed?

Has your medical condition recently changed?

Do you require therapy services?

Would you rather be cared for at home?

Have you been hospitalized recently?

Do you feel you're at risk for a fall?

There are a lot of things about home healthcare that you may not realize if you're looking into it for the first time. First of all, it's one of the most underutilized and valuable Medicare benefits out there. But it's also one of the most misunderstood. Gentiva home healthcare is not a sitting service. Instead it is highly skilled care that comes to you at home. Our mission is to help our patients live more independently with a higher quality of life. We work with your physician to carry out their orders and serve as their eyes and ears. Most importantly, we deliver
