COUNTERSIGNATURE      DATE                  COUNTERSIGNED AT
You are hereby notified that under the Terrorism Risk Insurance Act, as amended, that you have a right to purchase insurance coverage for losses resulting from acts of terrorism. As defined in Section 102(1) of the Act: The term "act of terrorism" means any act or acts that are certified by the Secretary of the Treasury-in consultation with the Secretary of Homeland Security, and the Attorney General of the United States-to be an act of terrorism; to be a violent act or an act that is dangerous to human life, property, or infrastructure; to have resulted in damage within the United States, or outside the United States in the case of certain air carriers or vessels or the premises of a United States mission; and to have been committed by an individual or individuals as part of an effort to coerce the civilian population of the United States or to influence the policy or affect the conduct of the United States Government by coercion.

YOU SHOULD KNOW THAT WHERE COVERAGE IS PROVIDED BY THIS POLICY FOR LOSSES RESULTING FROM CERTIFIED ACTS OF TERRORISM, SUCH LOSSES MAY BE PARTIALLY REIMBURSED BY THE UNITED STATES GOVERNMENT UNDER A FORMULA ESTABLISHED BY FEDERAL LAW. HOWEVER, YOUR POLICY MAY CONTAIN OTHER EXCLUSIONS WHICH MIGHT AFFECT YOUR COVERAGE, SUCH AS AN EXCLUSION FOR NUCLEAR EVENTS. UNDER THE FORMULA, THE UNITED STATES GOVERNMENT GENERALLY REIMBURSES 85% THROUGH 2015; 84% BEGINNING ON JANUARY 1, 2016; 83% BEGINNING ON JANUARY 1, 2017; 82% BEGINNING JANUARY 1, 2018; 81% BEGINNING JANUARY 1, 2019 and 80% BEGINNING ON JANUARY 1, 2020, OF COVERED TERRORISM LOSSES EXCEEDING THE STATUTORILY ESTABLISHED DEDUCTIBLE PAID BY THE INSURANCE COMPANY PROVIDING THE COVERAGE. THE PREMIUM CHARGED FOR THIS COVERAGE IS PROVIDED BELOW AND DOES NOT INCLUDE ANY CHARGES FOR THE PORTION OF LOSS THAT MAY BE COVERED BY THE FEDERAL GOVERNMENT UNDER THE ACT.

YOU SHOULD ALSO KNOW THAT THE TERRORISM RISK INSURANCE ACT, AS AMENDED, CONTAINS A $100 BILLION CAP THAT LIMITS U.S. GOVERNMENT REIMBURSEMENT AS WELL AS INSURERS’ LIABILITY FOR LOSSES RESULTING FROM CERTIFIED ACTS OF TERRORISM WHEN THE AMOUNT OF SUCH LOSSES IN ANY ONE CALENDAR YEAR EXCEEDS $100 BILLION. IF THE AGGREGATE INSURED LOSSES FOR ALL INSURERS EXCEED $100 BILLION, YOUR COVERAGE MAY BE REDUCED.

Event committed by or directly involving a natural person Insured, subject to the policy’s terms, conditions and exclusions.

4. LIMIT OF LIABILITY

The Limit of Liability is the Insurer’s maximum liability for all Loss under all Coverage Sections combined and the Insurer shall not be responsible to pay any Loss upon exhaustion of the Limit of Liability.

If a Sublimit of Liability is stated in Item 6 of the Declarations with respect to a Coverage Section, then such Sublimit of Liability shall be the Insurer’s maximum liability for all Loss with respect to such Coverage Section and the Insurer shall not be responsible to pay any Loss under such Coverage Section upon exhaustion of such Sublimit of Liability. Each Sublimit of Liability shall be part of and not in addition to the Limit of Liability and shall in no way serve to increase the Limit of Liability.

The Limit of Liability and any applicable Sublimits of Liability for any Discovery Period shall be part of, and not in addition to, the Limit of Liability and the corresponding Sublimits of Liability for the Policy Period.

Solely with respect to any Claims-Made and Reported Coverage Sections, a Claim which is made subsequent to the Policy Period or Discovery Period pursuant to Clauses 6(b) and 6(c) respectively, which is considered made during the Policy Period or Discovery Period shall also be subject to the Limit of Liability and any applicable Sublimit of Liability.

5. RETENTION

The Insurer shall only be liable for the amount of Loss arising from each Claim or First Party Event that exceeds the Retention stated in Item 6 of the Declarations as applicable to the Coverage Section affording coverage to such Claim or First Party Event. Such Retention amounts must be borne by the Insureds and remain uninsured.

(a) For Third Party Coverage Sections

If a Claim triggers more than one Third Party Coverage Section, the highest applicable Retention amount shall apply to such Claim.

A single Retention amount shall apply to all Claims alleging Related Acts.

(b) For First Party Coverage Sections

If a First Party Event triggers more than one First Party Coverage Section, all applicable Retention amounts shall apply to such First Party Event.

A separate Retention amount shall apply to each respective First Party Coverage Section for First Party Events involving Related Acts.

(c) For First Party Coverage Sections and Third Party Coverage Sections

If a First Party Event or a Third Party Event and any Related Acts trigger coverage under one or more First Party Coverage Sections and one or more Third Party Coverage Sections, all First Party Coverage Section Retentions shall apply pursuant to (b) above, in addition to the applicable Third Party Coverage Section Retention pursuant to (a) above.

6. NOTICE

(a) The Insureds shall, as a condition precedent to the obligations of the Insurer under this policy, give written notice to the Insurer of any Claim made against an Insured or a First Party Event as soon as practicable after:

(1) any personnel in the office of any member of the Control Group first becomes aware of the Claim; or
(2) any First Party Event commences or, solely with respect to a Discovery Coverage Section, is discovered.

Notwithstanding the foregoing and regardless of whether any personnel described in (1) above has become aware, in all events each Claim under a Claims-Made and Reported Coverage Section must be reported no later than either:

(1) forty-five (45) days after the end of the Policy Period; or
(2) the end of any applicable Discovery Period.

(b) If written notice of a Claim or a First Party Event has been given to the Insurer pursuant to Clause (a) above, then:

(1) any subsequent Claim made against an Insured; or
(2) any subsequent First Party Event;

arising out of, based upon or attributable to the facts giving rise to such Claim or First Party Event for which such notice has been given, or alleging any Related Act thereto, shall be considered made at the time such notice was given; and

(c) Solely with respect to any Claims-Made and Reported Coverage Section, if during the Policy Period or during the Discovery Period (if applicable), an Insured shall become aware of any circumstances which may reasonably be expected to give rise to a Claim being made against an Insured and shall choose to give written notice to the Insurer of such circumstances, the Third Party Events, allegations anticipated and the reasons for anticipating such a Claim, with full particulars as to dates, persons and entities involved, then any Claim which is subsequently made against an Insured and reported to the Insurer alleging, arising out of, based upon or attributable to such circumstances or alleging any Related Act to that alleged or contained in such circumstances, shall be considered made at the time such notice of such circumstances was given.

(d) Notice as described herein shall be given in writing to the Insurer at the following address or email address:
Any notice must reference the Policy Number set forth in the Declarations and the Coverage Section(s) under which an Insured is providing notice.

If mailed or transmitted by electronic mail, the date of such mailing or transmission shall constitute the date that such notice was given and proof of mailing or transmission shall be sufficient proof of notice.

7. INSURED’S OBLIGATIONS

In connection with all Claims and First Party Events under this policy, each Insured agrees to the following:

(a) such Insured shall send the Insurer copies of all demands, suit papers, other related legal documents and invoices for Defense Costs received by such Insured, as soon as practicable;

(b) such Insured shall immediately record the specifics of any Claim and First Party Event and the date such Insured first received such Claim or First Party Event;

(c) such Insured shall cooperate with and help the Insurer and/or any counsel appointed pursuant to the terms of this policy, including, without limitation, as follows:

1. by not admitting liability;
2. in making settlements;
3. in enforcing any legal rights any Insured may have against anyone who may be liable to any Insured;
4. by attending depositions, hearings and trials;
5. by securing and giving evidence, and obtaining the attendance of witnesses;
6. by furnishing any and all documentation within the possession of such Insured that may be required; and
7. by taking such actions that such Insured and the Insurer agree are necessary and practicable to prevent or limit Loss arising from any First Party Event or Third Party Event.

(d) unless required to do so by law, Insurers shall not, without the Insurer’s prior written consent:

1. assume any financial obligation or incur any cost unless specifically allowed to settle any Claim on behalf of all Insurers within the retention pursuant to a Coverage Section.
2. take any action, or fail to take any required action which prejudices the Insurer’s rights under this policy.

8. CANCELLATION

(a) By the Named Entity: This policy may be canceled by the Named Entity at any time only by mailing written prior notice to the Insurer or by surrender of this policy to the Insurer’s authorized agent or to the Insurer.
(b) By the Insurer: This policy may be canceled by the Insurer's delivering to the Named Entity by registered, certified, other first class mail or other reasonable delivery method, at the address of the Named Entity set forth in Item 1 of the Declarations, written notice stating when, not less than sixty (60) days thereafter (ten (10) days in the event of cancellation for non-payment of premium), the cancellation shall be effective. Proof of mailing or delivery of such notice as aforesaid shall be sufficient proof of notice and this policy shall be deemed canceled as to all Insureds at the date and hour specified in such notice.

(c) Return of Premium: If this policy shall be canceled by the Named Entity, the Insurer shall retain the customary short rate proportion of the premium hereon. If this policy shall be canceled by the Insurer, the Insurer shall retain the pro rata proportion of the premium hereon.

9. DISCOVERY

This Clause applies solely to Claims-Made and Reported Coverage Sections of this policy but shall not apply in the event of cancellation for non-payment of premium:

(a) Automatic Discovery Period: If the Named Entity or the Insurer shall cancel or refuse to renew this policy or in the event of a Transaction (as that term is defined in Clause 10. below), the Named Entity shall have the right following the effective date of such cancellation or nonrenewal to a period of sixty (60) days (the "Automatic Discovery Period") in which to give written notice to the Insurer of Claims first made against an Insured during the Automatic Discovery Period for any Third Party Events occurring prior to the end of the Policy Period and otherwise covered by this policy. The Automatic Discovery Period shall not apply where an Optional Discovery Period has been purchased or to Claims that are covered under any subsequent insurance an Insured purchases or that is purchased for an Insured's benefit, or that would be covered by any subsequent insurance but for the exhaustion of the amount of insurance applicable to such Claims or any applicable Retention amount.

(b) Optional Discovery Period: Except as indicated below, if the Named Entity or the Insurer shall cancel or refuse to renew this policy or in the event of a Transaction (as that term is defined in Clause 10. below), the Named Entity shall have the right to a period of up to three years following the effective date of such cancellation or nonrenewal (an "Optional Discovery Period"), upon payment of an additional premium amount of up to:

(i) one hundred percent (100%) of the full annual premium, for a period of one (1) year,
(ii) one hundred and seventy-five percent (175%) of the full annual premium, for a period of two (2) years, or
(iii) two hundred percent (200%) of the full annual premium, for a period of three (3) years, in which to give written notice to the Insurer of Claims first made against an Insured during the Optional Discovery Period for any Third Party Events occurring prior to the end of the Policy Period and otherwise covered by this policy.

If the Named Entity exercises its right to purchase an Optional Discovery Period, that period incepts at the end of the Policy Period and there shall be no Automatic Discovery Period.

As used herein, "full annual premium" means the premium amount set forth in the Declarations as such, plus an additional premium charged for any endorsements to this policy.
The right to purchase an Optional Discovery Period shall terminate unless written notice of election, together with any additional premium due, is received by the Insurer no later than thirty (30) days after the effective date of the cancellation, nonrenewal or transaction.

Any Discovery Period cannot be canceled and any additional premium charged for an Optional Discovery Period shall be fully earned at inception.

This Clause 9. DISCOVERY shall not apply to any cancellation resulting from non-payment of premium.

10. TRANSACTIONS

(a) If during the Policy Period:

(1) the Named Entity shall consolidate with or merge into, or sell all or substantially all of its assets to any other person or entity or group of persons or entities acting in concert; or

(2) any person or entity or group of persons or entities acting in concert shall acquire Management Control of the Named Entity;

(either of the above events herein referred to as the "Transaction"), then this policy shall continue in full force and effect only as to those First Party Events and Third Party Events occurring prior to the effective time of the Transaction.

This policy may not be canceled after the effective time of the Transaction.

(b) Notwithstanding the foregoing, this policy may continue in full force and effect as to those First Party Events and Third Party Events occurring subsequent to the effective time of the Transaction if:

(1) within thirty (30) days of such Transaction the Insurer has been provided with full particulars of the Transaction, the related or acquiring person(s) or entity(ies) and any other information requested by the Insurer; and

(2) the Insurer waives the restrictions set forth in Paragraph 10(a) above with respect to such Transaction by written endorsement to this policy and the Named Entity or its successor has paid any additional premium and accepted any amendments to this policy required by the Insurer.

11. SUBROGATION

An Insured may be able to recover all or part of Loss from someone other than the Insurer. Such Insured must do all that is possible after a First Party Event or Third Party Event to preserve any, and all, rights of recovery. As a condition of any payment by the Insurer under this policy, an Insured’s rights to recovery will be transferred to the Insurer. Each Insured will do whatever is necessary, including signing documents, to help the Insurer obtain that recovery.

A Company may waive an Insured’s rights to recovery against others if such Company does so in writing and before the First Party Event or Third Party Event occurred.

12. OTHER INSURANCE
Such insurance as is provided by this policy shall apply only as excess over any other valid and collectible insurance, unless such other insurance is expressly written to be excess over the Limit of Liability or any applicable Sublimit of Liability provided by this policy.

13. NOTICE AND AUTHORITY

Except for the giving of a notice of Claim, which shall be governed by the provisions of Section 6 of these General Terms and Conditions, all notices required under this policy to be given by an Insured to the Insurer shall be given in writing to the Insurer at the address stated in Item 4(a) of the Declarations. It is agreed that the Named Entity shall act on behalf of all Insureds with respect to the giving of notice of a Claim, the giving and receiving of notice of cancellation and nonrenewal, the payment of premiums and the receiving of any return premiums that may become due under this policy, the receipt and acceptance of any endorsements issued to form a part of this policy, the exercising or declining of the right to tender the defense of a Claim to the Insurer and the exercising or declining to exercise any right to a Discovery Period.

14. ASSIGNMENT

This policy and any and all rights hereunder are not assignable without the prior written consent of the Insurer, which consent shall be in the sole and absolute discretion of the Insurer.

15. DISPUTE RESOLUTION PROCESS

It is hereby understood and agreed that all disputes or differences which may arise under or in connection with this policy, whether arising before or after termination of this policy, including any determination of the amount of Loss, must first be submitted to the non-binding mediation process as set forth in this Clause.

The non-binding mediation will be administered by any mediation facility to which the Insurer and the Named Entity mutually agree, in which all implicated Insureds and the Insurer shall try in good faith to settle the dispute by mediation in accordance with the American Arbitration Association’s ("AAA") then-prevailing Commercial Mediation Rules. The parties shall mutually agree on the selection of a mediator. The mediator shall have knowledge of the legal, corporate management, or insurance issues relevant to the matters in dispute. The mediator shall also give due consideration to the general principles of the law of the state where the Named Entity is incorporated in the construction or interpretation of the provisions of this policy. In the event that such non-binding mediation does not result in a settlement of the subject dispute or difference:

(a) either party shall have the right to commence a judicial proceeding; or

(b) either party shall have the right, with all other parties consent, to commence an arbitration proceeding with the AAA that will be submitted to an arbitration panel of three (3) arbitrators as follows: (i) the implicated Insureds shall select one (1) arbitrator; (ii) the Insurer shall select one (1) arbitrator; and (iii) said arbitrators shall mutually agree upon the selection of the third arbitrator. The arbitration shall be conducted in accordance with the AAA’s then-prevailing Commercial Arbitration Rules.

Notwithstanding the foregoing, no such judicial or arbitration proceeding shall be commenced until at least 90 days after the date the non-binding mediation shall be deemed concluded or terminated. Each party shall share equally the expenses of the non-binding mediation.
The non-binding mediation may be commenced in New York, New York; Atlanta, Georgia; Chicago, Illinois; Denver, Colorado; or in the state indicated in Item 1 of the Declarations as the mailing address for the Named Entity. The Named Entity shall act on behalf of each and every Insured in connection with any non-binding mediation under this Clause, the selection of arbitration or judicial proceeding and/or the selection of mediators or arbitrators.

16. ACTION AGAINST INSURER

Except as provided in Clause 15 above, no action shall lie against the Insurer unless, as a condition precedent thereto, there shall have been full compliance with all of the terms of this policy, nor until the amount of an Insured's obligation to pay shall have been finally determined either by judgment against such Insured after actual trial or by written agreement of such Insured, the claimant and the Insurer.

Any person or organization or the legal representative thereof who has secured such judgment or written agreement shall thereafter be entitled to recover under this policy to the extent of the insurance afforded by this policy. No person or organization shall have any right under this policy to join the Insurer as a party to any action against an Insured or a Company to determine an Insured's liability, nor shall the Insurer be impleaded by an Insured or a Company or their legal representatives.

17. BANKRUPTCY

Bankruptcy or insolvency of any Company or any Insured or of their estates shall not relieve the Insurer of any of its obligations hereunder.

18. WORLDWIDE TERRITORY

Where legally permissible, this policy shall apply to First Party Events and Third Party Events occurring, Claims made or Losses suffered anywhere in the world.

19. HEADINGS

The descriptions in the headings of this policy are solely for convenience, and form no part of the terms and conditions of coverage.

Notice: Pursuant to Clause 1 of the General Terms and Conditions, the General Terms and Conditions are incorporated by reference into, made a part of and are expressly applicable to this ReputationGuard Coverage Section, unless otherwise explicitly stated to the contrary in the General Terms and Conditions or in this ReputationGuard Coverage Section.

With respect to the REPUTATION THREAT INSURING AGREEMENT and the REPUTATION ATTACK INSURING AGREEMENT of this Clause 1., solely with respect to a Reputation Threat or Reputation Attack first discovered during the Policy Period for which the Named Entity has first retained a Panel PR Firm during the Policy Period, this ReputationGuard Coverage Section affords the following coverage:

REPUTATION THREAT INSURING AGREEMENT

The Insurer shall pay the Proactive Costs in excess of the applicable Retention that an Insured incurs in seeking to avoid or minimize the potential impact of a specific Reputation Threat.

REPUTATION ATTACK INSURING AGREEMENT

The Insurer shall pay the Response Costs in excess of the applicable Retention that an Insured incurs in seeking to minimize the potential impact of a specific Reputation Attack.

2. DEFINITIONS

If no firm listed under the ReputationGuard® link is willing and able to provide crisis communication services to an Insured in connection with a specific Reputation Threat or Reputation Attack, the Named Entity may retain a Panel Affiliate, and such Panel Affiliate shall be treated as a Panel PR Firm solely for that specific Reputation Threat or a Reputation Attack against that specific Insured.

(k) "Related Event" means any Reputation Threat or Reputation Attack that: (1) is an extension, expansion or Publication of another Reputation Threat or Reputation Attack; or (2) arises out of, is based upon or is attributable to the same or related facts that are or were the subject of another Reputation Threat or Reputation Attack.

(2) any Insured had knowledge of any fact or information as of the Continuity Date that would lead a reasonable person to believe that a Reputation Threat or Reputation Attack might occur during the Policy Period.

7. NET PROFIT CALCULATIONS

In determining the amount of net profit (or net loss) and charges and expenses covered hereunder for the purpose of ascertaining the amount of Loss (and otherwise) under this Network Interruption Coverage Section, due consideration shall be given to the prior experience of an Insured’s business before the beginning of the Security Failure and to the probable business an Insured could have performed had no Security Failure occurred. Provided, however, that such net profit (or net loss) calculations shall not include, and this policy shall not cover, net income that would likely have been earned as a result of an increase in volume of business due to favorable business conditions caused by the impact of Security Failures on other businesses. All such net profit (or net loss) and charges and expenses shall be calculated on an hourly basis and based on such an Insured’s actual net profit (or net loss) and charges and expenses.

8. APPRAISAL

If any Insured and the Insurer disagree on the amount of Loss, either may make a written demand for an appraisal of such Loss. If such demand is made, each party will select a competent and impartial appraiser. The appraisers will then jointly select an umpire. If the appraisers cannot agree on an umpire, they may request that selection be made by a judge of a court having jurisdiction. Each appraiser will separately state the amount of Loss. If they fail to agree, they will submit their differences to the umpire. A decision agreed to by any two of these three will be binding.

Such Insured and the Insurer will:

(1) pay their respective chosen appraiser; and
(2) bear the expenses of the umpire equally.

Any appraisal of Loss shall be calculated in accordance with all terms, conditions and exclusions of this policy.

General Litigation
Management Guidelines
Effective September 2015
Litigation Management Program

The policies and practices set forth in this document describe the Litigation Management Guidelines ("Guidelines") for all law firms and counsel retained by AIG Claims ("Company" or "the Company") or any Company approved third party administrator ("TPA") to defend the interests of the Company's insureds against claims arising under policies issued to such insureds.

These Guidelines are the foundation of a successful relationship between insureds, retained counsel and the Company.

This document is not intended to interfere with counsel’s obligation to exercise independent legal judgment in representing the insured. Rather, the purpose of these Guidelines is to foster active communication, activity coordination and collaborative decision-making, which along with common sense and good business judgment, are essential to a cooperative, effective, economically sound and results-oriented approach to litigation management.

These Guidelines apply to all legal services rendered on or after September 1, 2015 and are to be applied unless the claim professional otherwise instructs in advance and in writing. All law firms are responsible for ensuring that employees providing legal services on Company matters are aware of and comply with these Guidelines.

Counsel is expected to represent our shared clients with the utmost loyalty and honesty and avoid even the appearance of impropriety in the attorney-client relationship. Accordingly, all firms are required to use an accurate system to screen for potential conflicts of interest prior to retention in a particular matter and immediately advise the Company and the insured as appropriate if a conflict subsequently develops or becomes apparent.

These Guidelines are periodically updated. Counsel should always verify that they are using/consulting the most current version of the Guidelines. For questions or to request additional copies of these Guidelines, contact the AIG Legal Operations Center, via https://aig.onit.com/portals Disputes or questions regarding the interpretation of these Guidelines should be directed to the Global Director of Firm Management within the AIG Legal Operations Center.

While these Guidelines are applicable to all assignments, the following specialty specific guidelines should be followed when applicable:

AIG Matter Management Guidelines (Corporate/GLCR assigned matters)

- Appellate Litigation
- Canadian Litigation
- Coverage
- Financial Lines D&O, EPL Non-Duty to Defend, Fiduciary (ERISA and Non-ERISA)
- Workers’ Compensation
- Defense Base Act
- Private Client Group
- International Casualty Home Office

I. EFFECTIVE LITIGATION MANAGEMENT

The Company’s goal is to implement the most effective, cost-efficient litigation management strategies to achieve the preferred outcome in every case. From commencement of litigation through resolution, the claim professional and counsel should discuss and pursue the earliest opportunities to achieve the preferred outcome.
Although litigation management must be a flexible process, effective litigation management requires:

- Identification of the critical issues that need to be resolved
- Identification of the preferred resolution
- Identification of a strategy to achieve the preferred resolution
- Identification of the costs to be incurred throughout the life of the case (i.e., a budget)

These Guidelines include procedures and forms to assist counsel and the claim professional in reaching and documenting these understandings and the attendant legal services required to provide a quality, cost efficient defense to the insured.

A. Pre-Litigation Assignments

Pre-litigation counsel assignments may be made in certain situations. In those cases, counsel and the claim professional should discuss whether reporting mandated by these Guidelines will be required. Even when reporting under these Guidelines will not be required, counsel should reach agreement with the claim professional on the critical issues, preferred resolution, strategy to achieve the preferred resolution and a legal budget in the form required by the claim professional.

B. Electronic Billing

The Company requires the use of electronic budgeting and invoice processing technology ("e-billing"). If the Company changes its technology, counsel is obliged upon reasonable notice to transition to the new technology.

C. Legal Audit, Inspection and File Retention

Counsel must keep case files, including without limitation all emails, and billing records, including legal invoices, original timesheets and/or other back up materials, related to each case assignment in compliance with generally accepted procedures. Counsel must keep such case files and billing records for a period of no less than seven years following the conclusion of the case. If counsel creates a complete electronic copy of the case file and billing records, counsel need not retain paper or duplicate originals or copies. Beyond the Company’s seven-year record retention period, counsel should maintain a record management policy to ensure the preservation and retention of documents as required by law.

Throughout and following conclusion of an assignment, case files and billing records must be open to inspection during regular business hours by an authorized representative of the Company including without limitation the Company Legal Audit Team.

D. Outside Communications

It is the Company’s general policy to decline to comment on litigation or litigation policies, practices and/or strategies. Consistent with this position, counsel must refrain from commenting either orally or in writing on behalf of the Company and/or the insured without first obtaining the written permission of the Company through AIG Corporate Communications and as necessary the insured. Further, counsel must not use any trademark or other intellectual property of the Company in its advertising or other marketing material without the Company’s prior written permission.
E. Confidentiality

Counsel must take steps to protect the information of the insured and the Company from unauthorized access, acquisition, disclosure, loss, destruction or damage by ensuring that hard copy and electronic materials are transmitted and stored in a secure fashion using encryption or other similar technologies when appropriate. Counsel must limit access to insured and Company information to only those individuals who have a business need to access it. Counsel must promptly inform the Company and as necessary the insured if there is any unauthorized access or damage to, or unauthorized acquisition, disclosure, loss or destruction of, the information of Company or the insured.

II. CASE ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

Within five business days after assignment of a new case, counsel should acknowledge receipt of the assignment by e-mail. Counsel should also address any matters of immediate concern or information that may result in early resolution of the case.

III. THE AGREED-TO LITIGATION PLAN AND BUDGET

A. Contents

Every case must have an Agreed-To Litigation Plan (ATLP), which is to include a budget that estimates costs for the life of the file.

The ATLP is divided into five primary components (See Attachments A and B):

1. The Executive Summary provides a short, concise, high level description of the case.
2. The Detailed Case Summary describes the nature of the dispute and the critical issues that need to be resolved. An evaluation of liability and damages should only be provided when specifically requested by the claim professional.
3. The Resolution Strategy sets forth the preferred method of resolution and how it will be achieved. The Resolution Strategy should only be provided when specifically requested by the claim professional.
4. The Case Management section describes the steps required to implement the case strategy and clarifies the roles of the claim professional, counsel and others in achieving that case strategy. This section should include actions anticipated by counsel to respond to discovery, motions and other litigation-related activity initiated by other parties or the court.
5. The Budget is the financial translation of the legal costs reasonably anticipated during the litigation. Budgeting must be done for the full life of the case and address the legal fees and expenses that are anticipated to be incurred during each of the following six specific case stages:
   1. Evaluation
   2. Discovery
   3. Trial
   4. Appeal
   5. Dispositive Motions
   6. Alternative Dispute Resolution
Evaluation is the initial and pre-discovery case evaluation process. This may include: reviewing the first notice; reviewing and drafting pleadings; assessing risk transfer opportunities; investigating facts; analyzing liability and damages; identifying experts, consultants and structured settlement opportunities; and, if requested, developing a case resolution strategy.

Discovery is the stage of litigation during which factual and expert information is obtained and exchanged. This may include without limitation document exchanges, interrogatories, electronic discovery, site inspections, fact and expert witness testimony and discovery-related motions.

Trial includes activities in connection with the trial, including pre-trial preparation and post-trial motion practice.

Appeal includes counsel’s activities in connection with a higher tribunal’s review of a lower tribunal’s verdict, ruling or judgment, from the filing of a notice of appeal (or a substantive equivalent) to the higher tribunal’s entry of its final judgment.

The following two stages, when appropriate, may occur at any time during the case:

Dispositive Motion includes counsel’s preparation and presentation of a motion that allows the court by operation of law to dispose of a case in whole or part.

Alternative Dispute Resolution (ADR) includes counsel's activities relating to the preparation and submission of a case to a third party neutral for resolution.

See Attachment C for associated stages and corresponding UTBMS Codes.

B. Submission and Updating of ATLPs

Within 30 days of an assignment, the claim professional and counsel must have a detailed planning conversation. During this conversation, the parties should agree to an initial litigation plan including a budget that estimates costs for the life of the file presented by the six previously outlined specific case stages. The planning conversation and initial ATLP should to be completed even if little information is available at the time of the assignment. Counsel is to provide the initial ATLP to the claim professional within five business days of the planning conversation.

It is expected that subsequent planning conversations and ATLPs will be event rather than time driven. Therefore, unlike the initial planning conversation and ATLP, which are triggered at a specific time frame (i.e., respectively, within 30 days of assignment and within five business days of the planning conversation), subsequent planning conversations are to be conducted upon the occurrence of any event that may significantly impact liability, damages or the budget, with revised ATLPs submitted upon request of the claim professional. If counsel and the claim professional agree that no revised ATLP is needed, counsel must promptly confirm that understanding in writing to the claim professional.

Examples of significant events that require counsel to conduct a planning conversation with the claim professional include:

- Commencement of a new case stage not previously discussed in a planning conversation
- A significant change in liability
- A significant change in damages
Although planning conversations other than the first are expected to be event driven, the period between planning conversations must not exceed 180 days even if no significant event has occurred during the 180 day period.

C. Budgets

Even at the earliest stages, the budget must include a well-defined estimate of the probable ultimate costs to litigate the entire case to conclusion.

Counsel must budget each case stage in the spaces provided at the end of the ATLP form (Attachment A) (See also instructions at the end of Attachment B). Legal services in the absence, or in excess, of a well-defined budget may be rejected.

Within the six case stages each budget and budget update should address the following:

- Legal tasks that counsel will initiate
- Legal tasks that opponents are anticipated to initiate
- Legal tasks that the court or others involved in the case are anticipated to initiate
- Legal tasks that relate to case management, reporting and communications
- Legal tasks that carry over from prior timeframes
- Expenses

Once the budget is established counsel should ensure that it is approved via the Company’s current e-billing system. Both counsel and the claim professional are responsible for managing legal expenses within the budget.

The costs of e-discovery must be included in the budget. Counsel is responsible for ensuring that e-discovery vendors provide a statement of work (“SOW”), with estimated time frame, cost and volume assumptions. A change order is required for any material deviations from the SOW, including cost overruns greater than five percent.

During planning conversations the claim professional and counsel should discuss what might cause the ATLP or budget to vary. If counsel’s opinion changes regarding the costs for any case stage, counsel should discuss such change with the claim professional prior to performing significant legal services that deviate from the ATLP and budget and inquire whether a revised ATLP or budget is needed.

D. Combined Pre-trial Report and ATLP

Unless the claim professional instructs otherwise, the Combined Pre-trial Report and ATLP (“Pre-trial Report”) (Attachment D) is due at the earliest of the following times:

- By 10 business days after the close of discovery
- By 10 business days after counsel receives the initial trial notice
- By 120 days prior to the scheduled trial date

If one of these triggering events occurs prior to the close of discovery, counsel should submit a Pre-trial Report based on the information known at that time. If the case is not resolved within 180 days of issuing the Pre-trial Report, counsel must promptly hold a planning conversation with the claim professional. The claim professional has the authority to waive the Pre-trial Report in cases with a verdict potential less than $50,000.
E. Summary Plans and Budgets

Certain cases will not require a detailed ATLP and budget. At the claim professional’s discretion, cases that historically have involved nominal legal expenses can be managed via a summary case plan and budget. Any agreement to waive the requirement of a detailed ATLP and budget should be confirmed by counsel to the claim professional in writing. If a case subject to such agreement later increases in complexity counsel should inquire whether a detailed ATLP and budget must then be provided.

IV. GENERAL REPORTING

Absent exceptional circumstances or express direction to the contrary, written material should be conveyed to the Company via e-mail. All correspondence should include a caption with the names of the insured and plaintiff, claim number, date of loss and document type label. As to attachments, the document type label is to be clearly listed on the document’s first page or cover page. A listing of specific document type labels is attached to these Guidelines as Attachment E.

At the commencement of the assignment, counsel should determine the insured’s interest in receiving communications concerning the case and communicate with the insured accordingly.

A. Case Documents

At the commencement of the assignment counsel and the claim professional must discuss what documents should be exchanged and in what manner.

Copies (and drafts when appropriate) of the following items should be sent to the claim professional as a matter of course:

- All discovery responses that will require certification by a claim professional with sufficient time to review those responses
- Substantive pleadings including original and amended complaints, answers and third-party pleadings
- Copies of substantive motions
- Responses to interrogatories and bills of particulars
- Correspondence and other documents relating to written and oral settlement offers and demands
- Releases, settlement agreements, dismissals or final judgments and other court orders, including drafts when requested

B. Case Development and Discovery

Substantial legal fees and expenses may be incurred in obtaining and exchanging information. The claim professional and counsel should discuss the most cost-effective means to:

- Obtain information relative to the dispute
- Exchange information between them
- Exchange information with other parties
- Exchange information with the court
- Oppose requests when necessary
- Use technology to avoid travel to depositions, meetings and other events
C. Depositions

Counsel must promptly advise the claim professional of the scheduling of the deposition of the plaintiff and the insured and initiate a telephone conversation with the claim professional at least five business days prior to both the plaintiff’s and insured’s depositions to discuss the critical issues to be addressed.

Counsel also must promptly notify the claim professional regarding the deposition scheduling of all other witnesses who are critical to the evaluation or strategy of the case and timely determine with the claim professional whether a conference to discuss these upcoming depositions is required.

Deposition Reports and Summaries

- Counsel must provide a brief summary of the depositions of the plaintiff, the insured and any other witness whose testimony impacts the critical issues, evaluation, value or strategy of the case within 10 business days after the deposition.
- Deposition summaries should be limited to two pages per witness per day. Unless the claim professional agrees in advance and in writing, the Company will not pay for deposition reports in excess of this page limit.
- When a deposition does not provide information that is valuable to the critical issues, evaluation, value or strategy of the case, counsel may simply advise in writing that no significant testimony was elicited during the witness' deposition.

When a deposition is conducted over time, counsel should inform the claim professional within 10 business days of each deposition session that the deposition was concluded in part and the date on which the deposition will resume. In addition, counsel should ascertain if the claim professional wants a summary of the deposition testimony to date or upon the conclusion of the deposition. If, however, deposition testimony significantly impacts the critical issues, evaluation, value, or strategy of the case, counsel should report such testimony within 10 business days even if the relevant deposition is incomplete.

Unless specifically requested in writing by the claim professional, the Company will not pay for line-by-line summaries or abstracts of depositions. If counsel is assigned to a case in which depositions already have been conducted, counsel should discuss the need for deposition summaries with the claim professional.

Summaries of plaintiff’s deposition should include information needed by the Company to comply with the Medicare Medicaid and SCHIP Extension Act of 2007 (MMSEA).

When requested and available, counsel should provide a digital copy of the deposition transcript.

D. Event Reporting

Counsel must notify the claim professional of settlement conferences, mediations, arbitration hearings or trial dates as soon as dates are set and advise of any subsequent date changes at the earliest possible time. Relevant event dates should be clearly indicated in the caption of all counsel's reports. The results of hearings, arbitrations or other substantive court appearances must be communicated to the claim professional within one business day of such event. During trial, counsel must communicate with the claim professional at least once during the business day (via e-mail or phone) and provide a summary of daily events once the trial day ends via e-mail.
All settlement offers and demands, whether written or oral, must be communicated promptly to the claim professional regardless of the merit of such offers and demands.

E. Expert Reports

Counsel should not summarize expert reports. Reports should be forwarded to the claim professional with a one page cover letter advising that the report is attached. The letter should include a short and concise statement of the report’s impact on the case. Unless specifically requested by the claim professional, the Company will not pay for a summary of the report itself.

F. Collection of Medicare Medicaid and SCHIP Extension Act of 2007 (MMESA) Required Data

Counsel should assist the claim professional with collection of data necessary to assess claimant’s Medicare eligibility including without limitation providing all discovery responses that provide information needed to comply with the MMSEA. If Medicare eligibility is confirmed, counsel should further assist the claims professional with collection of all data necessary to comply with MMSEA reporting requirements.

V. CASE MANAGEMENT

A. Case Staffing

At the commencement of the assignment the assigned attorney must discuss with the claim professional the need for involving additional law firm staff in the case and the roles of proposed staff members. It is anticipated that counsel will staff the case to maximize efficiency, eliminate redundancy and reduce excessive costs; for example, the Company will not pay for partner time when an associate or paralegal can properly handle a particular matter or task.

When staffing changes are required for any reason, counsel must promptly discuss with the claim professional the need for such changes. The Company will not pay for the cost for preparing new participants for their involvement. Multiple file reviews by the same lawyer also will not be reimbursed.

B. Intra-Office Conferences

The assigned attorney is expected to provide guidance to other law firm staff assigned to the case. Unless otherwise agreed to in advance and in writing, the Company will pay for up to two hours of intra-office conference time for each billing cycle to allow the assigned attorney to discuss the case strategy with other law firm staff that has been specifically approved by the claim professional to work on the matter. Only the assigned attorney’s actual time for conducting the conference will be paid. The Company will not pay for the time of other attendees or for any other forms of intra-office conferences or communications.

C. Multiple Attorney Attendance

The assigned attorney is responsible for the case and should attend substantive court appearances and depositions. Unless otherwise agreed in advance and in writing, the Company will pay for only one attorney attending depositions, meetings, court appearances, trials, arbitrations, mediations or other litigation-related events.
D. Paralegal Services

The Company recognizes the value of paralegal services when used appropriately. However, the Company will not pay for either paralegal or attorney services that are clerical in nature such as filing, organizing, indexing, Bates or date stamping or that otherwise add no significant value to the case.

E. Research

The Company retains counsel who are specialists in their fields. Accordingly, the Company expects counsel to be well-versed in the current law and procedure relative to their specialty and will not pay for research in connection with substantive or procedural issues that are typical or routine to the specialty.

The Company will pay for research relating to issues that are novel or unique to the case or to update prior work that will benefit the case. Such research must be discussed during the planning conversation and identified in the ATLP and budget unless the total research for the ATLP timeframe will not exceed five hours. The claim professional has discretion to reject research costs that exceed five hours per ATLP timeframe or the agreed to budget amount or that are otherwise unreasonable or unnecessary.

The Company expects counsel to use the most efficient research methods and tools, including central research depositories, and to manage research efforts to avoid redundancy, inefficiency and excessive costs.

Counsel must provide the results of any research relating to an extensive project or novel issue to the claim professional.

F. Duplication of Effort

Counsel should not duplicate research, drafting or other written work product that has been previously performed but should take maximum advantage of model documents and appropriate documents from prior similar matters.

G. Management of E-Discovery

The Company’s approach is to manage all facets of e-discovery in a logical, effective and efficient manner. The foundation of the e-discovery process is the integral involvement of counsel who is knowledgeable about the case (including key personnel and issues) and is authorized to make substantive and strategic decisions regarding document review and production. The goal of the following framework is to allow counsel to develop a comprehensive, systematic, efficient and ultimately defensible process for gathering, reviewing and producing electronically stored information (ESI):

- An understanding of the IT systems and processes
- Early consideration of the e-discovery process including retention of an appropriate e-discovery vendor to assist in formulating the technical aspects of an e-discovery plan
- Early discussion of all implicated procedural rules (e.g., F.R.C.P.) with the claim professional and e-discovery vendor to ensure clarity on all preservation requirements, collection methods,
- deliverables and timeframes
- Cooperation with opposing counsel in setting the ground rules for the e-discovery lifecycle
- Determination of appropriate methods and technologies for capture of responsive ESI
- Documentation of agreements between the parties and steps taken to effectuate these agreements
- Use of contract attorneys for first pass review whenever appropriate

Counsel should consult with the claim professional prior to retaining any e-discovery vendors. For further guidance in managing e-discovery cases, counsel should refer to Attachment F, "E-Discovery Checklist."

H. Expert Witnesses

Expert witnesses, including medical witnesses, should not be engaged without prior consultation with the claim professional. Unless otherwise agreed, medical examinations will be arranged by the claim professional. (Also see Billing Practices Section VI below).

I. Trial Activity

The decision to take a case to trial should only be made after consultation with the claim professional and the insured as appropriate as early in the matter as possible.

J. Jury Verdicts

The decision to accept a verdict should only be made after consultation with the claim professional and the insured as appropriate.

K. Appeals

The decision to file an appeal, interlocutory or otherwise, should only be made after consultation with the claim professional. Counsel should promptly advise the claim professional if an appeal is filed by another party.

L. Vendor Management Program

The Company maintains approved panels of litigation support vendors, including panels for claims investigation and surveillance, contract attorneys, court reporters, document management, e-discovery, environmental consulting and remediation, engineering, jury consulting, record retrieval, accounting, foreign language translation and construction consulting. When selecting a vendor in these categories, counsel and the claim professional should discuss whether a Company approved vendor is available for the assignment.

M. Alternative Dispute Resolution

Counsel and the claim professional should discuss settlement and ADR strategies as early as practicable and on a regular basis to ensure that opportunities to resolve the case by settlement are pursued whenever appropriate. Counsel should discuss any proposed mediator or arbitrator with the claim professional to determine if the recommended mediator or arbitrator is appropriate for achieving the desired outcome. The discussion should also include recommended attendees, settlement options and conditions and local rules regarding participation in settlement conferences and mediations. If it is decided that no Company representative need attend, then counsel must arrange to have telephone contact with the claim professional during the event.

N. Structured Settlement Program

When applicable the Company requires the early identification of structured settlement opportunities and encourages the early involvement of a Company approved structured settlement consultant. Retention of a Company approved structured settlement consultant should be undertaken in consultation with the claim professional and the role of the consultant should be clarified prior to a resolution event.

VI. BILLING PRACTICES

A. Billing Rates

The Company must agree to all billing rates prior to retention. Counsel may not under any circumstance increase billing rates on any case in progress. All rate increases or other variations to a rate agreement must be approved in writing by the AIG Legal Operations Center and will be applicable only to assignments made after the date of the approval. Funds paid in violation of this provision are subject to reimbursement.

Approved Company rates apply from the commencement of counsel’s assignment, whether the matter is assigned by a Company claim professional, a TPA or an insured under a self-insured retention.

B. Flat Charges and Minimum Charges

Counsel must not apply minimum, flat, routine or standard charges as part of its rate structure unless such charges specifically have been approved in writing by the AIG Legal Operations Center.

C. Disbursements

Counsel must pay small expense items and may submit an invoice when such expenses exceed $500 in the aggregate. Expense invoices exceeding $500 may be submitted for payment directly to the claim professional. Copies of receipts supporting individual disbursements in excess of $50 must be submitted with counsel’s invoice.

D. Travel Time and Expenses/ Travel Reimbursement Policy

Law firms are retained in part based on the geographical area in which they are located, and are expected to serve the areas and venues that are local to them as part of their normal provision of legal services.

- For Local Travel, defined as travel 50 miles or less from the office to which the matter is assigned, the Company will not pay for attorney or paralegal travel time; meals; or any local travel expense including without limitation tolls, mileage, parking, car rental or car service.
For Long Distance Travel, defined as travel in excess of 50 miles from the office to which the matter is assigned, the Company will pay for attorney travel time up to a maximum of eight hours per day. Billing for travel time must be separately stated on invoices. Double billing, i.e., billing for a task and travel time spent while engaging in that task, is strictly prohibited.

Reimbursable Long Distance Travel Expenses

Counsel will be reimbursed for reasonable expenses (e.g., coach class airfare, moderately priced hotels and meals) incurred during Long Distance Travel that has been undertaken after consultation with the claim professional. All travel expenses submitted to the Company for reimbursement must apply all cost savings received by counsel through rebates or other methods. Travel expenses must be specifically itemized on counsel’s invoice with copies of all receipts attached. Undocumented travel expenses will not be reimbursed.

Non-Reimbursable Travel Expenses

The Company will not reimburse for:

- Any automobile mileage
- Travel agent fees or travel insurance
- Expenses incurred for personal convenience or comfort not reasonably related to the business purpose of the travel
- Any lavish or unnecessary expense

E. Meals and Entertainment

All requests for reimbursement of meals during Long Distance Travel must be itemized and include the names of the persons in attendance, amount incurred and business purpose. Copies of receipts supporting disbursements in excess of $50 must be submitted with counsel’s invoice.

The Company will not pay for expenses including without limitation expenses incurred during Local Travel or Long Distance Travel to entertain clients.

F. Overhead and Non-Billable Items

The Company considers the following costs to be overhead included in the law firm’s hourly rate. Time devoted to these tasks is non-billable and non-reimbursable regardless of the level of the timekeeper performing the task:

- Opening or closing files
- Processing conflict searches and waivers
- Organizing material for storage
- Preparing, reviewing, approving or collecting billing statements or invoices
- Responding to inquiries concerning services, billing statements, case files and audit letters
- Training junior attorneys or "learning time" associated with such training
- Scheduling and arranging meetings, depositions, examinations or other events and maintaining office or attorney calendars
- Taking telephone messages and placing calls for counsel
- Communicating with copy services, record providers and court reporters
• Arranging for and/or making pick-ups and deliveries of documents and records
• Filing or organizing correspondence, pleadings or other documents in internal firm files or data bases
• Word processing, typing, transcribing, document scanning, data entry or other administrative, clerical or secretarial services
• Arranging travel
• Photocopying, collating, velo binding, faxing or scanning
• Receiving and distributing mail and/or correspondence
• Bates stamping or date stamping documents
• Managing clerical work
• Performing other services that are generally attendant to having the Company or its insureds as a client (e.g., review of professional journals, administrative conferences, marketing and research on general or client industry trends)
• Obtaining books or research materials
• Moving boxes or files
• Technology training
• Repetitive file reviews by the same timekeeper
• Tasks by librarians, summer or winter associates or law school graduates who have not passed the bar
• Any other tasks traditionally associated with overhead

G. Overhead: Non-Billable Expenses and Expense Limits

The Company considers the following expense items to be overhead included in the law firm’s hourly rate and therefore non-billable and non-reimbursable:

• Charges for computerized legal research services, including without limitation, Westlaw, LexisNexis or PACER
• Charges for opening, closing, and/or storing files
• Rent, whether for office space, conference rooms, office equipment, computers, hardware or software
• Utilities, including without limitation HVAC and electricity
• Local and long distance telephone charges, including cellular and internet charges, or charges of any kind for video or teleconferences. Where video conferencing is required, counsel should utilize the Company’s services
• Facsimile charges of any kind or any amount
• Postage of any kind or amount
• Books, periodicals, research materials and/or seminars
• Meals or refreshments during meetings, depositions or similar events
• Support staff salaries and overtime
• Overtime related expenses such as transportation to and from home, lunch, dinner or working meals
• Office supplies or equipment
• Methods of exchanging reports and documents other than e-mail. Absent emergency situations, the need for express charges or messenger services must be approved in advance by the claim professional and confirmed in writing by counsel and absent approval will not be reimbursed
• Technology costs, including hardware, software, licenses or services related to acquisition, maintenance or upgrade of the firm’s technology infrastructure
• Approved litigation support or any litigation-related services in excess of the amount actually expended by the firm for such services
Internal photocopy charges in excess of eight cents per page and external photocopy charges when mandated by legitimate business circumstances in excess of the amount actually expended

Any other expense items traditionally associated with overhead

H. Experts and Consultants

When retaining experts and consultants, counsel should consult with the claim professional and the Company’s preferred vendor program.

Bills submitted by experts and consultants should conform to all requirements of this Billing Practices Section except for sub-sections J and L below. Counsel should provide a copy of these requirements to all experts and consultants upon retention. All expert service should be conducted pursuant to both a written scope of work and budget submitted to the claim professional before the expert is authorized to commence work. The Company discourages the payment of retainers to experts.

I. Contract Timekeepers

Timekeepers who are not employees of the law firm must be identified as such and must be charged at the actual cost to the law firm.

Counsel should discuss the need for Contract Attorney/Paralegal services with the claim professional before a vendor is retained to determine if a Company approved vendor is available for the required service. Copies of relevant contracts relating to contract timekeepers must be made available upon request.

J. Submission of Invoices and Use of UTBMS Codes

Invoices must provide task codes according to the Uniform Task Based Management System (UTBMS). Counsel is expected to use the correct UTBMS phase, task and activity codes for all legal services. Inappropriate or inaccurate use of the UTBMS codes may result in rejection of a legal invoice.

Counsel must bill actual time in one-tenth hour increments. Block billing (i.e., aggregating multiple tasks under a single time charge) and chipping (i.e., breaking down a single task into artificial component parts) are impermissible.

Fees and expenses must be itemized by date, activity performed, timekeeper, time per activity and amount charged for each activity. Multiple tasks, even if devoted to the same work product, should not be bundled together for billing purposes. Overly generalized and vague billing entries will not be paid.

K. Foreign Currency

The Company will issue foreign currency payments at the exchange rate prevailing at the time of payment.

L. Master Billing

When legal services are performed in connection with more than one matter, counsel, when possible, should provide a master invoice that reflects the actual time incurred for legal services relating to each individual matter. If not possible, counsel should provide a suggested allocation of the total invoice amount to each individual matter.
M. Timing of Submission

Invoices should be submitted every 120 days. Shorter billing intervals must be approved by the claim professional on a case-specific basis with the approval documented by counsel to the claim professional. Final invoices must be promptly submitted at the conclusion of services. Settled cases will be deemed concluded upon the exchange of all required settlement papers. Cases resolved by means other than settlement will be considered concluded upon the entry of a final judgment.

Individual invoices (other than a final invoice) in any amount under $500 should be avoided. If the amount due is under $500 counsel should skip that invoice cycle and include that amount in the next scheduled invoice cycle. If the amount due at the next scheduled invoice cycle remains under $500, counsel should nevertheless submit the invoice.

N. Alternative Fee Arrangements

Cases subject to an alternative fee arrangement must be invoiced in accordance with the agreement. Counsel is responsible for coordinating with the claim professional and the Company Legal Operations Center to ensure that all fee arrangements are accurately reflected on the invoice and processed appropriately.

The ATLP should indicate the date of the planning conversation between the claim professional and counsel.

The caption of the ATLP must indicate the legal costs anticipated during the case stages addressed in the Guidelines, as well as costs incurred to date and the projected total legal costs from the start of the case through resolution. See the Guidelines, above, for a more detailed discussion, as well as the instructions in Section V below.

Each section of the ATLP should be expanded to accommodate the necessary text and data; the form should not limit the substance of a quality ATLP.

Each successive ATLP should contain current information, i.e., outdated information from prior ATLPs should be eliminated. Lengthy summaries of basic legal principles and full deposition summaries should be avoided. Discussions of testimony and damages should be concise.

I. Executive Summary

Summarize the case in one paragraph. Devote one sentence each to the incident/accident, the insured’s alleged role in the incident/accident (i.e., facts/allegations giving rise to the insured’s alleged liability), damages (type and amount alleged or established) and the insured’s probable liability.

II. Detailed Case Summary

A. Summary of Facts

Briefly describe the accident or incident that is the subject of the litigation, including the sources of information used to prepare the summary. Also explain the insured’s and other parties’ alleged role in the loss and how it is linked to the injuries/damages alleged. Identify key fact witnesses and summarize their anticipated testimony. Update this section as the case develops to describe actual testimony by key fact witnesses.

B. Procedural Posture of Case

Provide a concise description of the status of the litigation.

C. Venue, Jurisdictional Considerations, Judge, Probable Jury

Provide the docket number and describe the venue, including without limitation the likely accuracy of the assigned trial date, the trial judge’s biography, an assessment of the probable jury and recent verdicts of similar matters in the venue.

D. Name and Evaluation of Plaintiff’s and Other Parties’ Counsel

Provide relevant information regarding the plaintiff’s and all other parties’ trial counsel, including without limitation reputation, trial/appellate record, past settlement and trial strategy and personal experiences if any.

E. Critical Issues and Experts

Identify critical liability, damage and other issues that may influence the resolution of the case. Critical issues are those that should be addressed to further the case strategy or achieve a meaningful evaluation. Include a brief analysis of each critical issue, including any that has recently emerged. Indicate the critical issues that have been resolved and if not resolved the preferred method, estimated date and method of resolution.

1. Critical Liability Issues

Provide a concise discussion of the specific theories that are pled against the insured, any co-defendants and other parties, the critical issues that must be resolved under each theory and a discussion of the specific defenses available in connection with each theory. Address the potential liabilities and contributions of other parties, including plaintiff, and specifically address joint and several liability.

2. Expected Liability Experts

Provide a brief overview of the types of liability experts that have been or are anticipated to be retained by each party and any actual testimony by such experts in this case.

3. Critical Damage Issues

Discuss the damages sought by and potentially awardable to each party, including non-economic, multiple and punitive damages. Also discuss any laws/issues that limit or may impact damages including without limitation plaintiff’s life expectancy, medical expenses (past, present and future), plaintiff’s pre-and post-accident income, existing liens, whether venue permits reduction to present value and assumptions in support of future losses. In death cases, identify the wrongful death statute, the parties entitled to recover and potentially recoverable damages.

4. Expected Damage Experts

Provide a brief overview of the types of damage experts that have been or are anticipated to be retained by each party and any actual testimony by such experts in this case.

5. Other Critical Issues

Discuss any critical issues not previously addressed, including without limitation insurance coverage issues relating to other defendants, public policy considerations and the need for any non-standard jury instructions.
F. Evaluation (only if specifically requested by the claim professional)

Evaluate if the claim professional requires a case evaluation. When so requested, counsel must further ascertain and comply with the requested parameters of the evaluation. The Company expects that counsel will provide an analysis based upon currently known information as well as counsel’s experience. Responses of “too early to evaluate” should be avoided. The basis for the evaluation should be clearly described. Unless otherwise directed by the claim professional, all cases should briefly describe each of the following areas:

- Strengths and weaknesses of each party’s case
- Joint and several liability plus known insurance coverage for other parties
- Jurisdictional and public policy considerations
- Contributory/comparative negligence considerations
- Probable damages (compensatory) if the case is lost
- Punitive damage exposure (if applicable)
- Attorney’s fees recoverable (if applicable)
- Probable apportionment of fault among defendants (assign percentages)
- Net exposure to insured after all apportionment and based on probable damages
- Realistic settlement value and basis for evaluation
- Whether a structured settlement should be considered
- Whether the case should be tried

G. Summary of Medicare Medicaid and SCHIP Extension Act of 2007 (MMSEA) Discovery Responses if applicable

Summarize all relevant discovery responses that may assist the Company in complying with the MMSEA.

H. Summary of Electronic Discovery and/or Document Review Requirements

Summarize the anticipated volume and plan for review and production of electronic data and documents. When needed for collection, culling, processing, hosting and document production services, counsel should engage a Company approved e-discovery service provider. If the first level review will include more than 10,000 documents, counsel should engage a Company preferred contract attorney provider. For first level review of more than 100,000 documents, counsel should consider the Company’s preferred off-shore document review providers.

III. Resolution Strategy (Only if specifically requested by the claim professional)

When requested by the claim professional, describe the operative strategy of the case as agreed to by the claim professional and counsel. Such discussion should identify the preferred method of resolution, including the description and timing of the key litigation tasks that will direct the case toward that resolution sufficiently detailed to enable understanding of how the proposed legal services will support that resolution.

IV. Case Management

Set forth the firm staffing for the matter including respective roles, as well as the roles of the claim professional and any others expected to participate in the case.
V. Anticipated Legal Services, Claims Activity and Budget

Refer to Sections III (A) (5) and III(C) of the Guidelines for a more detailed discussion of the Budget.

The Budget is a financial translation of the legal costs anticipated during the litigation. Review of legal costs is an ongoing process between counsel and the claim professional. However, budgeting must be done for the full life of the case. The budget must address the legal costs and expenses for all legal services that are anticipated to occur during each of the following six specific case stages:

1. Evaluation
2. Discovery
3. Trial
4. Appeal

These stages may occur at any time during the litigation:

5. Dispositive Motion
6. Alternative Dispute Resolution

Each ATLP should include anticipated actions to respond to discovery, motions and other litigation-related activity initiated by the plaintiff, co-defendants and other parties and the court. The Company understands that this involves anticipating the actions of others and may require substantial amendment in certain cases. Counsel should advise the claim professional of any tasks that deviate substantially from the ATLP prior to performing those tasks.

The costs summarized in the ATLP should conform to a budget for the matter. The budget should be created in the Company’s e-billing system.

| Summary of Claims Activity |
| Summarize anticipated claims activities |

| Summary of Legal Services |
| Summarize anticipated legal services |

The totals from the budget should be included below. The totals for legal costs in the below budget should be identical to the budget totals that appear in the Company’s e-billing system.

If counsel’s opinion on any budgeted item changes as the case proceeds, counsel should discuss such change with the claim professional and upon the claim professional’s request include such changes in a supplemental ATLP and budget.

- By ten business days after the close of discovery
- By ten 10 business days after notification that the case is set for trial
- By 120 days prior to the scheduled trial date

The Pre-trial Report should be prepared by or along with the trial attorney listed in the Pre-trial Report. Once the Pre-trial Report is prepared, a separate ATLP need not be submitted.

Summarize the claims activities that are necessary during this Pre-Trial Report

Summary of Anticipated Legal Services

*Itemize the probable cost of defense up to and through trial: Summarize the legal services that are anticipated during the Pre-Trial Report. ATTACHMENT F
E-DISCOVERY CHECKLIST

1. Is the case in federal or state court or arbitration? If in court, have applicable court rules and any standing court rules governing discovery and/or e-discovery been considered? If in arbitration, have the parties discussed whether there is a need for e-discovery?

2. Have records custodians been identified? If so, how many?

3. Are any record custodians former employees? If so, has the scope of preservation obligation for each former employee been established?

4. Has a written litigation hold been drafted? Has it been issued?

5. Have custodian interviews been conducted to identify all potential locations of electronically stored information (“ESI”), e.g., home drive (H Drive for Company matters), My Documents, C Drive, e-mail archives (.PST), specific Outlook folders, personal/home computer, blackberry, etc.?

6. Have IT personnel been interviewed to gain an understanding of the relevant information systems? Have they been asked to assist in the collection of custodian data and the identification of a potential F.R.C.P. 30(b)(6) witness?

7. Does the case have five or more custodians with 3GBs or more of data per custodian or does the case have 100 GBs or more of raw data such that the Company’s e-discovery preferred vendor list should be consulted?

8. Was a “meet and confer” conference pursuant to F.R.C.P. 26(f) or analogous state court rule held? If so, provide a copy of the resulting discovery plan to the claim professional.

9. Before hiring an approved e-discovery vendor, conduct a “mini RFP” (Request for Proposal) to obtain the best pricing for the engagement. Volume assumptions (number of custodians, volume of GBs, location of data) should be provided to the vendor so that a budget with line item pricing can be prepared.

10. Are the budgeted e-discovery costs proportional to the anticipated cost of the claim?

11. Before retaining a contract attorney vendor, execute a statement of work (“SOW”) that outlines the pricing, level of contract attorneys performing the work and estimated hours to perform the review. “TBD” should not appear on the SOW. A change order should be required for any material deviation from the SOW including cost overruns greater than five percent.

12. After the data is processed/filtered, consult the Company’s preferred contract attorney vendor panel to perform first pass review for any case where review costs are estimated to exceed $100,000.

1. Clause 1. INSURING AGREEMENTS is amended to include the following:

FIRST RESPONSE COVERAGE
SOLELY with respect to a Security Failure or Privacy Event first discovered during the Policy Period and reported to the Insurer as provided in this endorsement:

The Insurer shall pay on an Insured’s behalf all First Response Loss that an Insured incurs solely as a result of such Security Failure or Privacy Event.

2. Solely with respect to the coverage afforded by this endorsement, the following definition shall apply:

(a) "First Response Loss" means the following reasonable and necessary expenses incurred by an Insured within the period of seventy-two (72) hours commencing upon the discovery of the Security Failure or Privacy Event by an Insured:

   (1) for the First Response Advisor (Legal) engaged by the Insureds (only one may be engaged) to provide legal services and advices relating to the Security Failure or Privacy Event;
   (2) only to the extent deemed necessary by the engaged First Response Advisor (Legal), for a First Response Advisor (IT) engaged by the Insureds (only one may be engaged), to contain and/or terminate the Security Failure or Privacy Event; and

5. As a condition precedent to the obligations of the Insurer under this endorsement, a member of the Control Group must notify the First Response Advisor (Legal) of the discovery of the Security Failure or Privacy Event. No coverage shall be afforded for any First Response Loss incurred prior to notifying the First Response Advisor (Legal). © All rights reserved.
In addition to the applicable items of Clause 6, NOTICE of the General Terms and Conditions, and before coverage will apply for Loss under this Impersonation Fraud Coverage Section, each Insured must also:

(a) complete and sign a written, detailed and affirmed proof of loss within ninety (90) days after the discovery of any Loss (unless such period has been extended by the Insurer in writing) which shall include, among any other pertinent information:

(1) a full description of such Loss and the circumstances surrounding such Loss, which shall include, among any other necessary information, the time, place and cause of the Loss;

(2) a detailed calculation of any Loss; and

(3) all underlying documents and materials that reasonably relate to or form any part of the proof of such Loss;

(b) upon the Insurer's request, submit to an examination under oath;

(c) immediately record the specifics of any Loss and the date such Insured first became aware of such Loss;

(d) give notice to law enforcement authorities; and

(e) provide the Insurer with any cooperation and assistance that the Insurer may request, including assisting the Insurer in:

(1) any investigation of a Loss or circumstance;

(2) enforcing any legal rights an Insured or the Insurer may have against anyone who may be liable to an Insured; and

(3) executing any documents that the Insurer deems necessary to secure its rights under this policy.

The costs and expenses of establishing or proving an Insured’s Loss under this Impersonation Fraud Coverage Section, including, without limitation, those connected with preparing a proof of loss, shall be such Insured’s obligation, and are not covered under this policy.

5. LIMIT OF LIABILITY

The following provisions shall apply in addition to the provisions of Clause 4. LIMIT OF LIABILITY of the General Terms and Conditions:

It is understood and agreed that:

(1) With respect to any Loss covered under this policy for which coverage is also provided by one or more other policies issued by the Insurer or any affiliate thereof, including any renewal or replacement thereof (the "Other Policy"), the most the Insurer or such affiliate shall pay under both policies combined shall not be greater than this policy’s Limit of Liability or the Other Policy’s aggregate limit of liability, whichever is higher.

All rights reserved.

END 031
(2) Subject to paragraph (1) above, if coverage for a Loss is sought by the Named Entity under both this policy and the Other Policy, the Insurer will only be liable under this policy for the Insurer's pro-rata portion of the Loss. The Insurer's pro-rata portion of the Loss shall not be greater than the proportion of the Loss that this policy's applicable limit(s) of coverage bears to the total of the applicable limits of liability of both policies.

Nothing in this foregoing shall be construed to increase either the Impersonation Fraud Coverage Section's Sublimit of Liability or the Limit of Liability.

6. BASIS OF VALUATION OF LOSS

If a foreign currency (a currency other than the currency in which this policy is written) is involved in a covered Loss sustained by the Insured, then for the purpose of any required calculation in the settlement of covered Loss, the rate of exchange shall be the rate as published in the Wall Street Journal on the date of discovery of the Loss.

7. SUBROGATION

The following provisions shall apply in addition to the provisions of Clause 11. SUBROGATION of the General Terms and Conditions:

Recoveries (except from sureties, insurance, reinsurance or indemnity), less the actual cost of recovery, made after a covered Loss will be distributed as follows:

· First, the Insured shall be reimbursed for covered Loss exceeding the applicable Limit of Liability and the applicable Retention;
· Second, the Company shall be reimbursed for the settlement made; and · Third, the Insured shall be reimbursed for covered Loss equal to the Retention amount.

ALL OTHER TERMS, CONDITIONS AND EXCLUSIONS REMAIN UNCHANGED.

ENDORSEMENT# 32

This endorsement, effective at 12:01 am July 1, 2019 forms a part of Policy number 01-571-46-51
Issued to: CLEVELAND COUNTY

Product Name: SPECIALTY RISK PROTECTOR

FEDERAL SHARE OF COMPENSATION UNDER TRIA AND CAP ON LOSSES ENDORSEMENT

This endorsement modifies insurance provided by this Policy:

DISCLOSURE

You should know that where coverage is provided by this Policy for losses resulting from "Certified Acts of Terrorism" (as defined by Section 102 (1) of United States Terrorism Risk Insurance Act), such losses may be partially reimbursed by the United States Government under a formula established by federal law. However, your Policy may contain other exclusions which might affect your coverage such as, an exclusion for nuclear events. Under the formula, the United States Government generally reimburses 85% through 2015; 84% beginning on January 1, 2016; 83% beginning on January 1, 2017; 82% beginning January 1, 2018; 81% beginning January 1, 2019 and 80% beginning on January 1, 2020, of covered terrorism losses exceeding the statutorily established deductible paid by the insurance company providing the coverage.

You should also know that the Terrorism Risk Insurance Act, as amended, contains a $100 billion cap that limits United States Government reimbursement as well as insurers' liability for losses resulting from "Certified Acts of Terrorism" when the amount of such losses in any one calendar year exceeds $100 billion. If the aggregate insured losses for all insurers exceed $100 billion in a calendar year and if we have met our insurer deductible, we are not liable for the payment of any portion of the amount of such losses that exceeds $100 billion; and for aggregate insured losses up to $100 billion, we will only pay a pro rata share of such insured losses as determined by the Secretary of the Treasury.
