EXTENSION COUNTY PARTNERSHIP AWARDS

Greg Traywick, County Extension Director introduced himself as well as several members of the local Extension staff and some of the most dedicated lay leaders and volunteers.

Mr. Traywick recognized Commissioners as a model county partner in the Extension mission of empowering people and providing solutions to improve quality of life in the local community.

The NC Cooperative Extension Service County Partnership Award is sponsored by the NC Cooperative Extension Service Foundation. It recognizes “best practices” based on: 1) Commitment of resources; 2) Inclusiveness in County Government; 3) Advocacy and/or involvement in Extension Program(s).

One county in each of the five Extension districts is selected to receive this award, and Cleveland County was selected as a state winner in the West District (competing against 21 counties and the Eastern Band of Cherokee Indians).

Because of the exemplary and longstanding support of Cooperative Extension, the award application almost wrote itself. One of the biggest challenges for Mr. Traywick was paring down the application to make it fit the 3-page limit. Mr. Traywick read the short statement that summarized the application.

Cleveland County Government values NC Cooperative Extension’s commitment and ability to impact local quality of life and consistently demonstrates its support of all four of our major programming areas. Most notable however, is the county’s commitment of resources to Extensions program efforts related to local food systems. The Manager and Commissioners were squarely behind the Extension efforts to establish a certified local seasonal tailgate farmers market in 2008. Over the past five years, they have provided a wealth of support, including a part-time managers’ salary, a range of insurance coverage and legal services, and a financial commitment toward the construction of a permanent market facility. Extension is recognized as an essential department of county government and is called upon regularly to provide feedback and background information to assist with planning and implementing county projects, and give leadership to community strategic planning and collective decision-making. County Government is well-represented on Extension advisory groups and at Extension events.

Commissioner Mary Accor accepted a large plaque during a formal ceremony at the NCACC Annual Conference. Mr. Traywick presented Commissioners and County Manager Eddie Bailes with individual awards as a symbol of his appreciation of them.

WHEREAS, Jim Quinlan began his career as a program coordinator for the American Legion in his home state of Iowa, was promoted to state adjutant and then in 1986, began working for the American Legion National Headquarters; and

WHEREAS, Mr. Quinlan directed his first American Legion Baseball tournament in Rapid City, South Dakota in 1986; and

WHEREAS, for 26 years, Mr. Quinlan has demonstrated in countless ways his dedication and love for the game of baseball, but more importantly, his dedication and love for the countless players and veterans he has served; and

WHEREAS, under his leadership, the American Legion Baseball World Series, is now available through social media and can now be seen across the nation on ESPN3, evolving from 25,000 average attendance to nearly 100,000 average attendance; and

WHEREAS, with this growth, Mr. Quinlan has always continued to put the players and the veterans’ best interests at heart; and

WHEREAS, since Cleveland County began working with Mr. Quinlan, the relationship between him and the county has grown from that of a working relationship to a true friendship.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, the Cleveland County Board of Commissioners, in appreciation of his dedication to the American Legion Baseball World Series and his willingness to believe in the “Shelby Way”, we hereby recognize Mr. Jim Quinlan as an honorary citizen of Cleveland County.

Adopted this the 21st day of August, 2012.
PUBLIC HEARINGS

ECONOMIC DEVELOPMENT ~ INCENTIVES FOR SCHLETTER, INC. (PROJECT LETTER)

Kristin Fletcher thanked Commissioners for being the lead Economic Development Agent in Cleveland County. Ms. Fletcher described this project as having an unprecedented number of jobs. The Economic Development team has worked for over a year to secure this project. Schletter Corporation will purchase the Shell Building located in the Foothills Commerce Center. They will move their US headquarters to this facility. The project will create over 300 jobs. The company will make a $27 million investment in capital equipment. Ms. Fletcher outlined incentives found in the agreement. She thanked County Attorney Bob Yelton for handling the negotiations of the proposed incentive agreement.

Chairman Hutchins opened the public hearing and asked anyone wishing to speak for or against the incentive agreement to please come forward.

David Dear, Special Projects Manager, spoke in support of the incentive agreement. Mr. Dear described this project as a significant project for Cleveland County. “This project will bring 300 jobs with an annual salary payment of $13 Million. This project validates the incentive program and the process of partnering with the City of Shelby on construction of the shell building.” Mr. Dear hoped that the County will build a second building with the proceeds from the sale of this building to Schletter.

Hearing no other comments, Chairman Hutchins closed the public hearing.

ACTION: Ronnie Hawkins made the motion, seconded by Mary Accor and unanimously adopted by the board, to approve the incentive agreement (copy found on Page ____ of Minute Book ____).

COMMUNITY DEVELOPMENT BLOCK GRANT (CDBG) CLOSEOUT FOR SHELL BUILDING PROJECT

Chairman Hutchins introduced Teresa Spires of Isothermal Planning and Development Commission. Cleveland County has successfully used the funds granted by CDBG to build the Shell Building located in the Foothills Commerce Center. The grant received was $1 Million and the county provided $10,000 for grant administration. Ms. Spires explained the next step was to close out the project.

Chairman Hutchins opened the public hearing and asked anyone wishing to speak for or against to please come forward.

COMMUNITY DEVELOPMENT BLOCK GRANT (CDBG) CLOSEOUT FOR HALLELUJAH ACRES

Cleveland County received a $200,000 Community Development Block Grant to assist with construction of sewer lines and a pump station to serve Hallelujah Acres. Additional funds for this project were also received from the North Carolina Rural Center.

When Cleveland County signed the agreement for the CDBG grant, Hallelujah Acres also signed an agreement that this project would produce twenty new jobs. The company has not met that criteria and will be moving to Gaston County. County Manager Eddie Bailes has had conversations with Hallelujah Acres and they understand their obligation to repay the money.

The NC Department of Commerce recommends that the grant be closed because all of the funds have been spent.

County Attorney Bob Yelton explained the legally binding agreement that Hallelujah signed holds even if the grant is closed.

Should the grant not be closed, Cleveland County may not have the ability to apply for any other CDBG grants.

Chairman Hutchins opened the public hearing and asked anyone wishing to speak for or against to please come forward.

Hearing no comments, Chairman Hutchins closed the public hearing.

ACTION: Mary Accor made the motion, seconded by Ronnie Hawkins and unanimously adopted by the board, to close out the CDBG Grant for the Hallelujah Acres project and instruct the County Manager and County Attorney to recoup the money, from Hallelujah Acres, for repayment of the grant.
